No. 269
3/6/16

No.

Shanghai Municipal Council.

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

3rd June 1916

Sir,

Woo Cha Leh 吳嘉祿 the officer who led the rebel attack on Wukiang near Soochow, visited the family of the late Chen Chi Mei yesterday, and offered his condolences.

It is reported that the Chapei gentry intend to petition Chiangchun Feng Kuo Chang to remove the Northern soldiers from their district.

It is reported that Woo Chi Mei 吳奇梅, compradore of the Banque Belge Pour L'Etranger, has given $500.00 to certain rebels who reside at No. 156 Avenue Joffre in aid of the revolutionary cause.

It is rumoured that the Government and Chekiang soldiers have come into collision at Fung Ching where they exchanged shots.

Nine hundred soldiers arrived at the Hweichow Guild which is situated south of St. Catherine's Bridge, from Anhwei on June 2nd. These troops were brought here by the cruiser Yoong Ziang, and it is said they will take part in the attack on Chekiang.

It is reported that the rebels are arranging to hold a conference in Shanghai.

The Chapei and City Police were all paid yesterday.

Your obedient servant,

William Armstrong

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.

Entered on M.S. June 3.
